TWO FARM HOUSES ARE RAZED BY FIRE

House Rented by J. Polze,
Salem, and Rogan Home
Lost in Flames

Two farmhouses north of Antioch were totally destroyed by fire within the last few days, the John Polze house, north of Salem burning Monday afternoon, and the Rogan house, five miles northeast of Antioch last Friday.

Although the cause of the Rogan fire was not definitely established, it was thought that it became ignited from sparks from the chimney. Mrs. Frank Rogan, owner of the farm, lives in Chicago, but her sons, William and Leo who have been making their home there, were able to save most of the furniture and personal effects. They were unable to immediately notify the fire department, as there was no phone in the house.

A neighbor, seeing the flames, called the Antioch fire department, but the fire had made such progress that efforts of the firemen to check the blazing fire, were useless.

The house was quite old, and had been the property of the Rogan family for many years. The loss was estimated to be about $2,500.

Polze Home Razed

The tenant house occupied by the John Polze family north of Salem was completely demolished by flames originating from the cabinet coal heater. Fire was first discovered shortly before 2:30 Monday afternoon in the walls and framework near the stove. The Silver Lake Fire Department was called, and while awaiting the arrival of the truck, volunteer help from Salem and neighbors succeeded in removing part of the furniture and attempted to check the fire.

When the firemen reached the scene, the house was beyond being saved. Much of the furniture and personal effects were also consumed in the blaze.

Mr. and Mrs. Polze and family had moved into the house, which is owned by Dr. Staley, Chicago, about three months before. The house was estimated to be worth about $3,000.

Fire in Church Roof

A small roof fire at the Methodist church, started by sparks from the chimney, was extinguished by the Antioch firemen about 8:30 Friday evening. Damage was estimated at about two dollars.

Winter Institute Here Attracts Youth Of Lake District

Quest Groups Prove to Be of Interest; Rev. Williams' Talk, Inspiring

Much enthusiasm and interest were displayed by the young people of this vicinity in the discussions of the Winter Institute for Protestant Youth of the Little Lake District held at Antioch Friday evening and Saturday, February 23 and 24.

There were fifty-six registered persons present from young people's groups in Lake Villa, Fox Lake, Ingleside, Gurnee, Richmond, Solon Mills, Salem, Bristol, Wilmet and Pleasant Prairie.

The Institute opened Friday evening with general introductory rites and a fellowship hour. Saturday was devoted to discussions by various Quest Groups, under the leadership of pastors and workers in neighboring parishes. Themes for discussion included mission work, Bible, recreation, Evangelism, social ethics, devotion, and league mechanics. Five reels of motion pictures on Japan, and three reels for the General Electric "The Yoke of the Past" were shown.

Rev. Williams Speaks at Banquet

The high point of the Institute was the Young People's banquet Saturday evening, which was served by Circle No. 4 of the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. Church. Decorations were in keeping with Washington traditions. After several pep songs and a presentation of the faculty and principal speaker, the meeting was adjourned to the upper rooms, where Rev. Morgan Williams, Euclid Avenue Church, Chicago, spoke on "The Mind of Christ."

"Greatest happiness may be secured by using one's talents and abilities for upbuilding of life in the kingdom of God," Rev. Williams said. "The place one lives in is not in his home, his town, or his physique, but from the eyes up."

He went on to say that Jesus refused to exploit his own abilities, his God, or the people of his day, and exhorted the young people of today not to commercialize their intellects.

A special campfire scene was arranged for this closing event of the Institute. A devotional service was conducted, with songs, and the closing League Benediction.

Rev. Sitter Is Dean

This is the first year that such an Institute has been attempted in this region. Rev. L. V. Sitter, Dean of the Institute, and pastor of the local M. E. Church, is largely responsible for organizing the events of the two-day conference and securing interesting leaders and speakers.

Kutli To Write On Farm And Garden Topics For the News

During the next three months the Antioch News will publish a series of farm and garden articles from the pen of C. L. Kutli, director of vocational agriculture at the Antioch high school.

These topics will be of general interest to farmers and gardeners in this locality, especially, and will be of great interest to those who seek best methods of growing crops particularly adapted to the soils of this region.

Mr. Kutli's first article, "To Delay Blooming Is Usually Beneficial," appears in this edition. Which for others each week during the spring months.

Dem. Candidates to Speak at Meeting of Grass Lake Club

Several well-known Democratic candidates for county offices in the coming elections have been secured to speak at the next meeting of the Grass Lake Club which is being held tomorrow night at the Grass Lake school, according to George Maleck, secretary of the club. The club is nonpartisan in nature, and is giving both Republican and Democratic candidates an opportunity to present their claims for endorsement. Any one living in Antioch's first precinct is welcome to attend.

Challenges Ping Pong Title Claimant

Panowski Doubts Sorenson's Right to Wear
Crown

Who is Antioch's ping pong champion? That is a much discussed question among players of the game, and railbirds who gather at the grade school each Friday night to watch the games, singles and doubles, and the elimination contests from which will emerge a real and undisputed champion.

Ray E. Sorenson, who lays claim to being the single champion, this week received a challenge from Joe Panowski, who questions Ray's right to wear the crown. Panowski states he thinks he can wear the ping pong top-piece when Ray gives him a crack at it, and to prove he is ready to start a championship match he sent the following challenge to Sorenson: Mr. Ray Sorenson, Antioch, Illinois:

Dear Sir: In last week's Antioch News I noticed you claimed the single ping pong championship of Antioch. I would like to know from whom you won this honor, when, why, and how? If you haven't got the crown too much out of shape I think I could wear it.

Yours truly, J. Panowski.

And Still Another

And now comes some brand new information to the News to the effect that Bill Volk won the singles ping pong championship of the group playing at King's drug store Sunday night.

Bill came out best in a tournament that had ended up to the finals thus: John Murrie lost to John Murphy in the first round, and Bill Kaulman bowed to George Slater. Murphy drew a bye and Volk defeated Ed Sorenson. In the semi-finals Bill Murphy defeated John Murphy, and Volk downed Slater. Then in the final game Volk defeated Murphy.

All of which puts the situation right back where it started—Who is Antioch's ping pong champion?

A tournament is played every Thursday night on King's mezzanine floor, under the supervision of Bill Volk, Ed Sorenson and Bill Murphy. Games at the grade school are played Friday nights.

Sunday guests at the Wallace Drom home were Mr. and Mrs. George Patrick, Trevor, who helped celebrate Mr. Drom's birthday anniversary.

OPENS GARAGE AND AUTO SALES IN EDGAR BLDG.

Larger Building for His Business

He will do repair work on all makes of cars, and has ample space for the storing of autos in his new location.

Disabled Vets To Receive Gov't Aid

Dr. L. J. Zimmerman, local service officer of the American Legion, has been requested to start a survey of all presumptive cases of ex-service men disallowed by the government, according to a recent communication from the American Legion State Service officer, Lester Benson.

Until the Economy Act of June, 1933, many claims classed as presumptive were admitted by the government, and aid was granted. Presumptive cases include all those unproven to be incurred in service. Many injuries thought to be slight at the time received, were not reported until later complications rendered them more serious, and a claim for aid was then made to the government. All such claims submitted before 1935 are presumptive.

These cases were disallowed by the June Economy Act, but the new bill calling for $140,000,000 for veterans' relief, will provide for a re-evaluation of pensions and reconsideration of many cases.

Dr. Zimmerman requests all ex-service men who have a claim against the government for injuries received during any U. S. war to communicate with him immediately. He will prepare applications for reconsideration of their claims to be sent to Washington. Reduced pensions probably will be restored until the original claim is settled.

Chase Webb will leave tomorrow for Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he will remain for about three weeks taking the bath treatments.

Mrs. Carlstrom and daughter, Waukegan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sheen, and Ben Van Duzer visited Mrs. W. J.

Fox Lake Resident Is Pneumonia Victim

Francis Howard, 50, Fox Lake, passed away last Thursday after being ill for over a week with pneumonia. Funeral services were held Saturday from St. Bede's Church, Fox Lake, with burial at St. Bede's cemetery.

Howard had been a resident of Fox Lake for about twenty years, and had been employed by the St. Paul railroad as a caretaker of passenger train coaches.

He was born at Harvard, Ill., fifty years ago, and has spent most of his life in McHenry and Lake counties. He leaves a wife and six children.

Over Hundred Co. Farmers Sign For Corn-Hog Reduction

Committeemen Ask Farmers to Send Worksheets to Grayslake

Over one hundred contracts for corn acreage or hog reduction have been signed by Lake County farmers, according to Farm Adviser H. C. Gilkerson, thus indicating the willingness of the farmers here to cooperate with the government's reduction program.

When word was received by County officers to establish Corn-Hog units throughout the county, temporary unit chairmen were appointed, but doubt was expressed that a sufficient number of farmers in this region would be eligible for the reduction program to support a County unit. However, after the meeting held at Grayslake Tuesday for the purpose of signing members, it was found that contracts had been signed by over a hundred. Another meeting to consider the situation to date is being held at Grayslake today.

Send Worksheets to Grayslake
Each farmer is required to prepare a work sheet or card of his farm produce. Members of the local committees, who are donating their services, request that each farmer send his worksheet directly to the Farm Bureau office at Grayslake. This will assist the committeemen, and save expenditure of time and gas in stopping at every farm to collect the cards.

Attorney Runyard Undergoes Operation

Attorney E. M. Runyard, 332 Fourth street, Waukegan, underwent a major operation last Friday at the St. Therese hospital. Runyard is well-known in Antioch, where he formerly made his residence. He owns a summer home here.

Mrs. Thelma Saffley and two children, William and Mary Jane, moved to Orchard street this week from Sides Corners, Wis. William entered the fifth grade and Mary Jane the fourth grade.

Mrs. George Garland and Mrs. Earl Pitman attended a party in Kenosha yesterday afternoon.

Chas. Lux has been confined to his home by illness for the past ten days.

EIGHTEEN NAMES ARE REMOVED FROM ANTIOCH CWA LIST

All Township and Village
Workers Await Project
Extensions

Eighteen names of CWA workers on Antioch village, high school, or township projects have been dropped from the payroll and from the lists in the County CWA office in Waukegan, according to Supervisor Wm. A. Roeling.

Township road workers received notice to cease work last week, and are awaiting approval of an extension of the road project before resuming work. Although they have the Grass Lake road on the west side of Fox River near Wildwood in passable condition, Roeling estimated that three months' more work would be required before work on the road could be considered completed.

Five names were definitely removed from the roll of thirty-eight township workers, and five more are expected to be "called" this week. Nine workers were dropped from the thirty-three employed on the high school project according to Timekeeper S. M. Wallace. Of the eight painters employed on the grade school project completed last week, four were retained on the CWA lists and may receive further work, Wallace said. It is expected that an approximate ten per cent cut of the high school workers will be effected every week.

Single men without dependents are being removed first from the payroll. No word has yet been received by Mayor George Bartlett approving the application for six weeks' work for 24 men to complete the village street improvement project. Bartlett said, however, that he expects to see Engineer A. L. Ball, North Chicago, within a day or so, and may receive some word at that time.

New Program Announced

President Roosevelt yesterday announced a reorganization relief program to be substituted for the Civil Works lineup now being demobilized. The recent $950,000,000 relief appropriation will be sufficient to carry out the new program for another year, the President believes. He has stipulated that federal funds be confined almost 100 percent to wages and to absolutely needy cases, including working opportunities for professional groups as well as laborers.

Three separate groups are believed to be in particular need through no fault of their own, and it is for those groups that the new program is being developed. They are:

- (1) Distressed families in rural areas.
- (2) For stranded populations in communities where industries have died.
- (3) Unemployed in large cities.

CLIFFORD HOOK JOINS J. DERING PLEASURE CRUISE

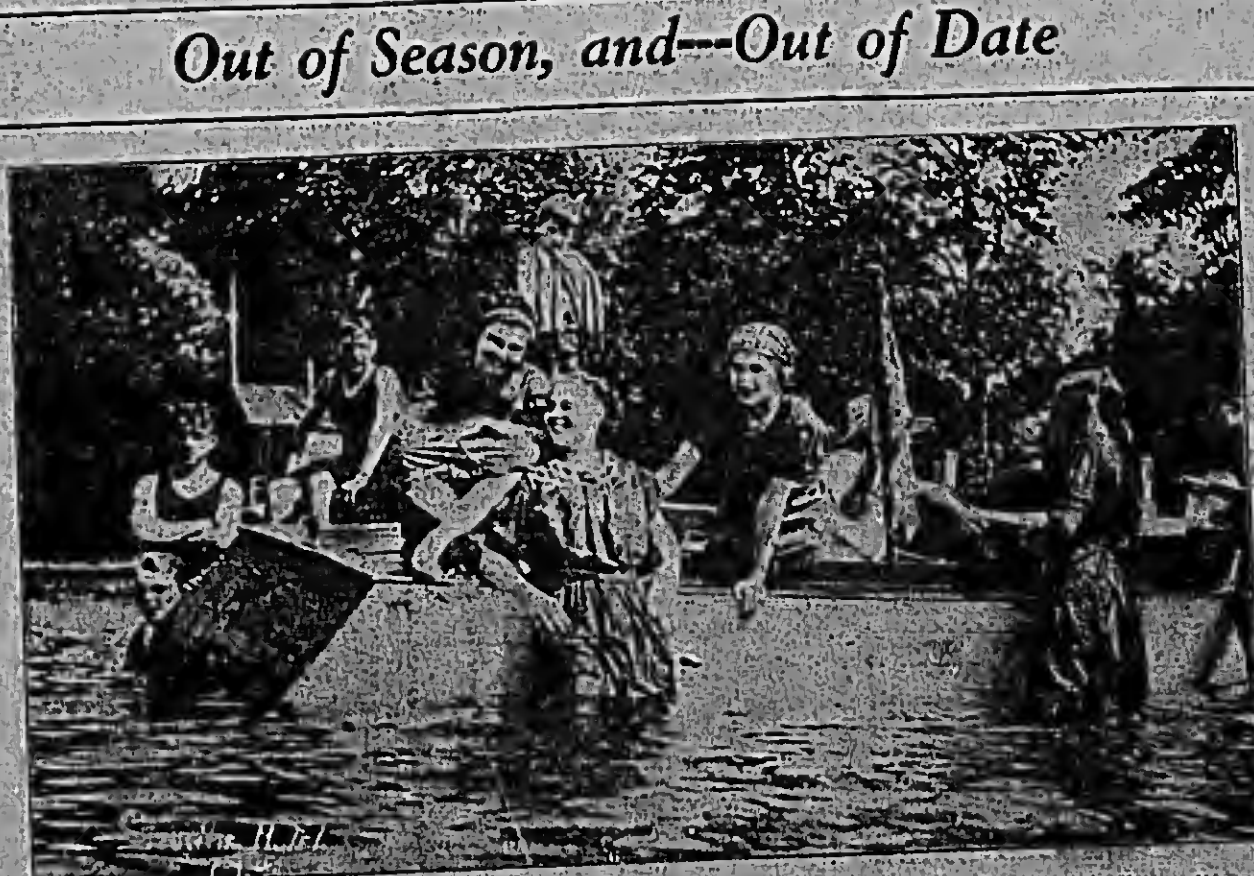

Clifford Hook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hook, Milburn, left this week to join the J. K. Dering expedition at Miami, Florida, where the Uvira will anchor for a few days to receive other passengers.

Hook received the opportunity of joining the cruise when he received a hasty telegram from Philip Simpson, Antioch, assistant business manager of the expedition, seeking to fill the vacancy created by the drowning of the young Chicago electrician and sailor swept overboard during the storm which disabled the Uvira off the coast of Virginia, near Norfolk.

MERRILL SABIN IS CRITICALLY ILL

Mr. and Mrs. Del Sabin were called to Springfield last week by the serious illness of their son Merrill, assistant Municipal Sanitary Engineer of the city. The illness is due to uremic poisoning which set in a short time ago. Doctors expressed his condition as extremely critical.

Mrs. Hugh Hurdwick is serious ill at St. Therese's hospital, where she was taken Saturday.

It won't be long now! The back of Winter is broken and Spring days are lurking "just around the corner," just as it did "way back when this photo of a group of happy bathers was snapped at a nearby lake. Perhaps it was in the "gay nineties," who remembers? Wonder how mermaids of our lakes will dress in 1934!

MAKE ALL PAY TAXES

When the nation is groaning under a growing tax load and seeking to raise more taxes, isn't it a good time to start taxing publicly-owned business enterprises which are now in a privileged tax-exempt class?

The reason that this inequality is permitted to continue, is due to the fact that the majority of people do not realize such special privilege exists in our country.

BUILD NOW AND REDUCE

TAXATION CHARITY

According to a survey made by the American Builder, based on depreciation of existing structures at the rate of 2 per cent a year, population increase and other factors, there is an accumulated deficiency of home building and repair work amounting to $13,000,000,000 in this country. The surplus of homes, which grew from 1925 through 1929, was eliminated by the middle of 1931. The deficit then started growing at an unprecedented rate because of stoppage of building in 1932 and 1933.

There exists, as a result, one of the greatest potential building markets of all time. Existing with it is one of the greatest potential means of stimulating employment, community development and business recovery in general. In normal times the construction industry gives work to 929,000 carpenters, 419,000 laborers and helpers, 410,000 painters, 280,000 electricians, 170,000 masons, 237,000 plumbers, 167,000 builders and contractors, and thousands of other workers of various kinds. And this is not the end of it—in addition to the men employed on the job, another vast army is employed in the industries providing concrete, roofing materials, machinery, lumber, paint and other necessary supplies.

Start home-building—it is indispensable in bringing back good times.

YOUR "DEBT CERTIFICATES" GROW

The old saw about it being the woman who pays should be modernized. The one who pays and pays today is the taxpayer, male and female.

According to the United States News, every American citizen—man, woman and child—at the close of 1932, has been obligated with a tax debt of $14.22 by the various units of government managing public affairs. This tax burden is growing at an alarming rate and in another year the interest bill alone will probably be about $2,000,000,000 annually.

The sources of tax money are limited. It must come out of earnings of business and individuals—out of capital and wages. Already fear of confiscation of property and earnings through taxation, is driving money into tax-free government bonds and preventing investments and developments that would create more jobs, larger payrolls and greater income.

The people should get this idea clearly in their heads: Every tax dollar expended is a dollar taken from the earnings of private citizens and private industries. Don't be misled by the idea that government money is any different from your money. It is your money. You are the government. The government has no source of securing revenue except from you. Every last penny of government expenditures is raised by taxation; it comes out of your pocket either in direct taxes or through indirect taxes collected in higher prices for food, clothing, rent, fuel, tobacco, amusements and everything you eat, wear or enjoy.

Every family of four, at the close of 1932, owed $1,256.88 on government promises to pay—"debt certificates" drawing interest.

Are you interested in government—taxation—jobs—bread and butter? Think it over!

AIR MAIL CONTRACTS

Two potential courses of action must have occurred to the President when the Senate disclosures concerning the air mail contracts were brought before him: One was to ferret out the guilty and punish them. The other was to cancel all contracts, good and bad, and turn the carrying of the mail over to the army. The President took the latter course—and started the hottest battle of his administration.

As usual there are two sides to every matter. The Senate disclosures are sensational. Fraud and collusion are charged along with terrific profits through speculation and promotion. In one case it is alleged that a few hundred dollars was run up to a paper total of some twenty million—while the government was paying heavy subsidies on the ground that they were essential to the development of commercial aviation.

But is has not yet been proven that all operators are crooked. To cancel every contract, lumping the good with the bad, is punishment of an unprecedented sort. That was what the Lindbergh telegram complained about. It threw a bombshell into the proceedings—and it created a highly dramatic situation in which the most famous private citizens and the head of the government clashed violently. The Colonel laid himself open to criticism on the grounds that the giving of the telegram to the press before it reached the White House was a breach of ethics and that in being associated with an interested company he was a biased party. Opinion seems to be about evenly divided—half lining up with the President, the other half with the Colonel. The belief is expressed that the President's action was certainly drastic on innocent stockholders—but that Spartan means to get graft out of government are essential.

At this writing, the fight is moving in the courts. Government won the first victory, when a plea of Transcontinental Western Air to restrain the order was refused.

A determining factor in arriving at a basis for future air mail contracts will be the efficiency of the army in handling the mail. Its ships are slower than those of private operators, though it is hoped that this will be offset by shorter stops due to elimination of passenger service. The first schedules are pretty sketchy in view of past private service—many points will be left off the map, at least to begin with; and flights will be fewer in number. Army aid heads are worried by the fact that their pilots are young and inexperienced for the most part when it comes to this kind of flying and are starting at a bad time of year. Three were immediately enroute to posts in Idaho and Utah.

The cancellation order was vaguely worded, left room for new private contracts if they are demanded and are necessary. It seems certain, in that case, that the subsidy system is to be discarded, that the fixed price basis will prevail, that smaller concerns will be given a break in obtaining contracts.

One constantly hears that "the romance of discovery is dead." But nothing could be farther from the truth. Only the other day a school-girl recognized a stone lying under a hedge near Maldstone as a fine Stone age ax. ## TRIED AND FOUND TRUE DURING YEARS OF SERVICE

WHEN Lew A. Hendee took over the Affairs of the Office of Clerk of the Lake County Court, 23 years ago, the county had a population of about 50,000 people. He had three assistants.

Today Lake County has a Population of more than 100,000. Six Deputies assist him in conducting the Affairs of the Office.

During Mr. Hendee's Tenure of Office the Volume of Business in that Office has increased almost a Hundred Fold.

BUT DESPITE THE GREAT INCREASE IN THE DEMANDS ON THIS OFFICE, THE INCREASE IN COST OF OPERATION—GOVERNED BY THE STRICTEST ECONOMY—HAS BEEN SMALL IN COMPARISON.

AND, DESPITE THE PRACTICE OF RIGID ECONOMY THE OFFICE HAS BEEN CONDUCTED WITH A DEGREE OF EFFICIENCY THAT HAS WON PRAISE FROM AUDITORS AND FROM SCORES OF COUNTY CLERKS FROM OTHER PARTS OF THE STATE WHO HAVE COME HERE TO INSPECT AND COPY THE SYSTEMS.

Likewise, the County Clerk's Office, under Mr. Hendee, has Paid Its Own Expenses in Each of All These Years and in Addition, it Has Turned over from $10,000 to $20,000 to the County Treasurer Each Year.

Every Taxpayer in Lake County Has Benefited from the Economies Practiced in This Office.

There are Few, if Any Other County Clerks' Offices in the State that can claim a Similar Record.

"Mind" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 25.

The Golden Text was, "Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous" (1 Peter 3:8).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, The God of hosts, is his name" (Amos 4:13).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The supreme over all its forms, the life and light of all its own vast creation; and man is tributary to divine Mind. The world would collapse without Mind, without the intelligence which holds the worlds in its grasp" (p. 269).

HIGHLAND PARK IS ANTIOCH'S FIRST DIST. TOURNNEY FOE

Full Card Is Listed for Five-Day Tournament at Libertyville

Antioch Sequoits are slated to encounter Highland Park for their first game in the annual district basketball tournament to be held at Libertyville for five nights next week, starting Tuesday evening and closing with the championship game Saturday evening.

Antioch has been a near victor of the tournament on two or three occasions in past years, losing only after overtime, in which anguished fans went wild. Waukegan has been a consistent winner, and is considered to be among the favored teams again this year.

Others whose records this season entitle them to respectful awe from their opponents are Deerfield, Shields, Evanston, New Trier, Arlington Heights, Libertyville, Barrington, Palatine, and Warren.

The unexpected strength displayed by the Sequoits in their tussle with Libertyville Friday night is indicative of the type of game they are capable of playing and the manner in which they may perform during the tournament.

Schedule is Announced
The tournament schedule is as follows:

Tuesday evening: Game No. 1—Ingleside vs. Libertyville, 7 p. m.; Game No. 2—Waukegan vs. Waukegan, 8 p. m.; Game No. 3—Antioch vs. Highland Park, 9 p. m.

Wednesday evening: Game No. 4—Lake Zurich vs. Niles Center; Game

No. 5, Northbrook vs. Gurnee; Game No. 6, Winnetka vs. winner of Game No. 3.

Thursday evening: Game No. 7—Des Plaines vs. winner of Game No. 4; Game No. 8—Evanston vs. winner of Game No. 5; Game No. 9—winners of Games 1 and 2.

Saturday evening: consolation game at 8 p. m.; championship game at 9 p. m.

Admission prices are 35 cents for the first four nights and fifty cents for the championship game, students being admitted for a quarter at all times.

THIRD GRADE WRITES POEM ABOUT POSTMEN

The third grade pupils are still busily engaged in their Post Office project, and are making rapid progress in its construction. The following poem was composed by the members of the class.

Postmen
Many letters travel far
Some by train, air or car.
Postmen carry letters, too,
That are sent from me to you.
Daisy postmen they must be Making each delivery;
To our house they have to come
With a letter for each one.
Maybe we shall be some day
Carrying letters just like they.

LAKE VILLA WOMAN LEAVES FOR TEXAS

Mrs. Leonard Armstrong Is Enjoying Trip Through South and East

Mrs. Inez Manser left last Friday morning for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Arlene Gullett and family, at Trinidad, Texas. Her son, Mrs. Pierce of Chicago, came out to be with her mother. Mrs. Dalrymple, during her absence, which will be for three or four weeks.

In word received from Mrs. Bernice Armstrong, who is enjoying a vacation in Florida, she likes the South very much. She and her sister-in-law and other relatives plan to return by way of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Tony Jensen spent last Wednesday in Kenosha.

Mrs. Ed Tiede and daughter, Barbara, visited relatives in Chicago for several days this week.

T. H. Rhoades has been very busy getting his ice-houses filled, and since the weather has been colder during the past week, he will be able to get both houses filled with a good quality of ice.

The car which went through the ice on Cedar Lake last week was pulled out last Thursday by W. G. Hucker and son, Earl, after considerable difficulty. It will need to be entirely overhauled.

Rev. Ratcliffe came out from Evanston for the Father-and-Son and Epworth League Institute at Antioch on Friday evening and Saturday, and remained over for the Sunday services.

He will be out next Sunday for Sunday School at 10; morning worship at 11 and Epworth League in the evening.

A small CWA project is being done this week by three women who are making curtains for the school-house. They work in the village hall.

Much interest is being shown by the two groups of women who are in the two classes meeting at the school house twice each week and learning the principles of care of the sick and home-making. Mrs. Boyd is in charge.

A surprise party, with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Martin as honored guests was held at the Danbo cafe on Monday evening of this week, with 70 or more in attendance, many of whom were neighbors and friends of the Martin family, in and around Lake Villa and Menomonee.

The young couple was presented with a gift of silverware from the group, and a very pleasant social time spent. It was a complete surprise.

Every lady in the community is invited to attend the Ladies' Aid meeting at the Ladies' Aid room on Wednesday, and Mrs. Perry will be hostess. Last week's meeting was especially enjoyable because of a book review by Mrs. Fry, who reviewed "As the Earth Turns" for the group. Every meeting will have something special besides the business.

ANTIOCH NAMED 85 YEARS AGO

Village Lacked Only 25 Votes of Being Named "Windsor"

(Note—the following story of the memorable meeting held 85 years ago when the village was officially named "Antioch," was written many years ago by the late Charles E. Blunt. The document was taken from the files of W. H. Williams, who has accumulated an extensive library of documents relating to the early history of Antioch.)

EARLY DAY HISTORY ON NAMING ANTIOCH

January 10, 1849

By the permission and courtesy of Mr. Chas. Webb of Antioch who has the original manuscript or records of the first township meeting that was held in the then primitive and nameless village of the present Antioch on account of this meeting held Jan. 10, 1849, has been made available. Ira R. Webb, father of Chas. Webb, was the clerk or secretary of said meeting. The object of this meeting was to decide on the name for the town. It seems there were two factions or parties; one faction wanted it "Antioch" and the other wanted it "Windsor." I presume that among the Antioch adherents there were at least a few amphilotes or disciples now known as Christians and that they chose Antioch for the reason that according to the Bible Antioch of the Old World was a chosen location where Christ and his followers went to assemble or congregate and we would naturally suppose that of the other faction there were at least a few English or Canadians as the reason why they chose the name of Windsor which is an English name.

was attended by nearly 100 fathers and sons and was successful in every way. The banquet was served by the Ladies' Aid Society. Decorations were in keeping with Washington's birthday and consisted of flags, branches loaded with gum drops to represent cherries, and national colors. The menu consisted of roast beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, rutabaga, cabbage salad, pickles, cherry pie, and coffee. Rev. Walter Ratcliffe, pastor of the Lake Villa church, was toastmaster, William Weber, Jr., gave the toast to the sons in a few well chosen remarks and William Nelson gave the toast to the fathers in his own humorous way. The grade school band recently organized and under the direction of Monio Hinton, gave a few selections and was much applauded. We are proud of the group. W. C. Petty, county superintendent of schools, was the principal speaker and interested his audience with his very appropriate remarks. The response of the fathers to this gathering showed much interest and all present felt it was well worth while.

Total number of votes cast—145. Antioch 85 and Windsor 60.

These old pioneers who came here in an early day were obliged to endure the privations and hardships of early days have all gone to their reward but their names should be perpetuated and recorded in the early history of Antioch.

CHARLES E. BLUNT.

Chatter Brings Them Fame

These three women dash from their kitchens five mornings a week to a microphone and a listening audience of thousands.

WOMAN'S idle talk isn't always to be derided. Not when you consider that three young married women have made a successful radio career out of this pastime. A unique career built of chatter about family's tonics, the price of carrots, and how to take spots on a leather coat.

They call themselves Clara, Lu, and Em, these three women who turn the commonplace events of the day to such unusual purposes. And, five mornings a week, a radio audience from coast to coast eavesdrops, as it were, upon their backfence exchange of comment and gossip.

Leading simple, suburban lives themselves, Clara, Lu and Em are right at the source from which they build their morning programs of tell-corned conversation. As Mrs. Paul C. Mead, Mrs. Howard Beron, and Mrs. John Mitchell, all of Evanston, Ill., they keep house

AN EDITORIAL

The following excerpt from a recent editorial in the Villa Park Argus provides food for thought:

"Even if we could legislate electric rates down to a new low, it would avail nothing. It would lower the standard of service, bankrupt companies, eliminate a great source of tax revenue, throw people out of work, ruin investors. Electric rates will continue to drop—but they will drop naturally as means are found to increase efficiency in production, and not because of agitation."

Do Your Rooms Radiate Charm?

Subtle Touches Against a Harmonious Background Gives House "It"

(By Ruby Ritchey)

Charm is the keynote of any room. This may be expressed by emphasizing characteristics—dominance, sportiveness, as in a college boy's room, daintiness, comfort, dignity, cheerfulness, impressiveness, or liberty. Many matrons enjoy decorating their homes according to the mode of some period.

Skillful use of a few harmonious colors in practical furnishings will lead the charm of a French provincial interior. There are so many colors and shades of these colors that it is not difficult today to effect some pleasing combination suitable to any room. Henna and sage green can be used for lovely bed room furnishings. In the wall paper, ceilings, curtains, chair coverings, and hooked rugs, one can alternate these colors which may be complemented by furniture of wormy chestnut.

Because of the old wood in the floors of many houses, especially farm houses, the floors are covered with linoleum, and whatever rugs are used can be placed on that, which eliminates much dust and unnecessary cleaning. Linoleum can be purchased in designs and colors suitable to any room now.

As a rule, the colors in a room should be soft and quiet, but for a bit of brightening, accessories can be used to wake up the whole situation. For example, if the rug is of soft colors and the dominating shade is mulberry or rose, the walls could be a soft tint of yellow or cream with violet blue draperies, and in this way a triad color scheme could be used. In order to brighten up the room, accessories such as lamps, vases, candles and pillows may be of brilliant yellows, reds, and blues; for they can easily be changed or hidden if one tires of them or finds them trying on the nerves.

Since it has been learned that the furnishings and decorations really make a marked influence in the character building of the children and an effect upon the nervous system of grown-ups, one need not feel that it is time wasted, but time profitably spent, when reading, observing, or experimenting in regard to selection of harmonious color schemes for the environment in which one expects to spend a good portion of time.

OUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALBERT C. HENDRICK
Director, Physical and Mental Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

Are Children Pawns?

Because she had a perfect attendance record at school, Helen received a special gift at promotion time. This local newspaper ran her picture.

There were other honors. It was said around town that it "puffed her up a bit." At any rate, many a schoolmate resolved that next year, come what may, Helen would have serious competition. Medals, certificates, name and picture in the paper were "great stuff." Now Helen's mother was quite a normal person and mother, so she can't be blamed for a little neighborhood boasting, just enough to start every other mother in a "red hot" race with children as pawns.

It's a great American game, and how Americans like to win! No little obstacle as a cold, a sore throat, a toothache will turn them aside. It's win or bust. And whether a cold may lead to pneumonia or that sore throat is the first step in scarlet fever and other children may catch it, it matters not. Indeed, what price victory? One wonders if the "Golden Rule" is completely forgotten. Let's give the child a better chance.

Dr. Ireland will say more about "perfect attendance" next week.

Dragon's Sword Found

What is declared to be a dragon's sword of the Seventeenth century period, and probably a relic of the Covenanting days, was found at Stone house, Scotland, by two school boys. The sword was found in a chest in what appeared to be a leather scabbard, but so rotted that it fell to pieces when the weapon was withdrawn. The blade is hooked, heavily rusted and measures 30 inches from hilt to tip.

Bright Colors For Spring

Interesting Color Combination Is Used in New Suits

By Julia Coburn

(From the Ladies Home Journal)
When you ask me what most impressed me about the new spring clothes as I saw them in the salons of the couturiers of Paris, I shall reply promptly, "The colors for spring are bright, and of course are always more colorful than fall. History of costume has told us that after a war or an economic depression, there is spontaneous outburst of color in dress. Maybe our colors will show our optimism."

Do you know that for many years we heard talk of new and delightful colors. Stores have bought a large percent of their coats and suits in black and brown in the fall and navy blue in the spring. They buy them because so many of us have proved to them that those are the colors so many of us want to wear.

You can wear any color you want this spring. Besides navy there are all sorts of other blues, in varying degrees of lightness. Reds and brown even becomes a spring color, too. Beige and grey have a definite standing. The newest greens are on the blue side rather than the yellow—a clear dark emerald shade. This will be lovely for next fall.

In their showing of advance spring models, they made most interesting combination of colors. Have you always thought you should wear navy shoes, bag and gloves with navy outfit? Try brown this year—a blue and brown combination is very smart. If you decide to have a brown suit wear it with a blouse of grey blue that we used to call powder blue. Don't be content with just one color in a costume. With a dark suit wear white if you must; but another color is likely to be more interesting. The knitted suit is very good for spring. Tweeds for spring in the subtlest shades and combinations of colors. Use your own originality in putting different shades of blueses with your favorite tweed.

Skirts seem to be definitely shorter. Suits have short jackets, and awaggar coats, the short jacket is obviously for the youthful figure and the awaggar coat is every woman's friend.

Household Hints

A piece of soda and a little vinegar put in the sink will dislodge grease from pipes.

Olive oil will not become rancid if two lumps of sugar will be put in each quart as soon as it is opened.

If grease is spilled on the kitchen table, cover it at once with coarse salt. This prevents the grease from sinking into the wood.

A spoonful of mustard added to the washing up water will remove the smell of fish from cutlery and crockery.

If new enamel saucepans are placed in a pan of water and allowed to come to a boil, then set aside to cool, they will last much longer without burning or chipping.

Eggs covered with boiling water and allowed to stand for five minutes are more nourishing and more easily digested than eggs placed in boiling water and allowed to boil 3½ minutes.

When rolls and biscuits become hard, moisten the inside of a paper bag and place the rolls in it. Put the bag in a hot oven for a few minutes and the contents will be freshened when removed.

Soak cake that has become hard and dry in cold milk and rebake in a cool oven; it will taste almost like new. This same scheme may be used to freshen bread.

To brighten up and clean furniture use one part water and three parts vinegar, and you will be surprised at the way it cleans and brings out the color in the wood.

FARM AND GARDEN TOPICS

(By C. L. Kuttel)

Fruit tree and strawberry blooms are usually injured by freezing if allowed to bloom early. Total crop failures may result. This can be prevented.

Early blooming is due to the fact that the early spring warm weather has thawed the soil and the trees and plants have started growth. The fruit buds open and if a late frost appears the damage is done.

Early blooming can be prevented by keeping the ground frozen for a longer period. This can be done by covering the frozen ground during the winter with straw, slough hay, or straw manure. The ground will remain frozen longer because the warm sun will be reflected by the covering and blooming will be delayed until all danger of late frosts is past.

Orchards should be heavily manured with horse manure during the time the ground is frozen. This will serve another purpose, for when the spring rains come, the tree roots will be greatly nourished by the nitrogen leached from the manure and soaked into the soil. Large fruit crops are due to a plentiful supply of nitrogen in the soil.

Strawberry patches can best be covered with weed free straw or slough hay. This should be removed from around the plants and left between the rows when there is no danger of late frosts. The straw between rows will help hold moisture, keep down weeds, and prevent sand getting on to the berries during rains. Usually eight inches of straw is applied. This will suffice to about four inches by spring. One must use his best judgment as to the proper time to remove the straw. Usually when the plants start growing under the straw it will be safe to expose them.

It is not too late to apply manure to orchards and straw to strawberry patches at this writing, but be sure to do so before the ground thaws. Most berry growers apply the straw as soon as the ground is frozen early in winter.

Straw is better than manure for strawberry patches as too much manure stimulates excessive leaf growth.

A $1.50 Dinner for 6

A GOOD filling dinner for six people at a cost of twenty-five cents each is something worth while in these days when we are expected to save our pennies in order to loan the government ten billion dollars. Here is a suggestion for such a dinner:

Pickle Relish 7¢
Baked Beef Steak 37¢
Broccoli with Drained Butter 35¢
Bread and Butter 12¢
Orange Cole Slaw 13¢
Pear and Fig Pudding 36¢
Coffee with Cream 10¢

And here are the tested recipes for two of the dishes which you may not know how to make:
Baked Beef Steak: Cut one pound of stewing beef into cubes and put into a large kettle or baking dish. Add two cups water, then contents of a No. 2 can of tomatoes and one and a half teaspoons salt. Cover and bake for an hour and a half in a slow, 300 degree oven. Add three onions, halved, three carrots, halved, and two potatoes, quartered, and continue baking until the meat and vegetables are all very tender.

Pear and Fig Pudding: Lay twelve fig cookies in the bottom of a baking dish and arrange the contents of an 8-ounce can of pears and an 8-ounce can of figs on top. Pour the fruit syrup from both cans over, and bake at 275 degrees for from twenty-five to thirty minutes. Serve with three-fourths of a cup of light cream.

Light Food for Sound Sleep, Child Sleep Prober Discovers

Dr. Laird, adjusting the somnokinograph, the most sensitive sleep recording instrument yet developed. It is so delicate that it registers even such slight movements in bed as a two-inch shift of the hand. The long roll of paper shows a complete record of sleep movements during the night.

WHAT children eat for their supper has an important influence on how they sleep during the night, according to the findings of Dr. Donald A. Laird, Director of the psychological laboratories at Colgate University. A light supper in which the main dish consists of some such easily digested food as the familiar corn flakes and milk provides "the best assurance of sound and restful sleep."

In arriving at his findings Dr. Laird collected sleep data from a group of eight children ranging in age from four and a half to eight years. The investigation covered a period of approximately four months. Data was collected for each night on which the children were fed the "cereal supper," for other nights on which they were given the ordinary supper to which they were accustomed in their homes, and for still other nights on which some rather indigestible food was included in the supper. In every case the best sleep records were made on the "cereal nights."

Data on how the children slept each night was obtained through the use of a number of delicate scientific instruments which, in addition to the somnokinograph, included a sleep movement recorder, a chronokinometer to show the duration of sleep movements, and a kinometer to measure the total number of inches the mattress was moved by sleep disturbances during the night.

Preparing Meals By Electricity

THE preparation, preservation, and cooking and serving of food, is the biggest industry in the world. Every home must have a kitchen, even if it's only a kitchenette. And every homemaker should know how to prepare three wholesome appetizing meals each day with the minimum of time and effort.

To-day there are all kinds of useful electric equipment for the kitchen that make housework and the preparing of meals amazingly simple. There are few women to-day who can't boast of an electric refrigerator. But not so many know the pleasure of cooking by electricity.

The new electric ranges are almost human. They enable the housewife to cook a complete meal and yet be out of the kitchen all during the cooking time. Below you will find some useful and simple menus. Your electric equipment will be most helpful in preparing them:

Thinking Rightly About Business

MUCH thought is given to the question of business. For most people, supply seems to be dependent upon the state of business. If it is good, supply appears to be adequate, and this condition is thought to be an influence in helping the individual to live happily and to have good health. Seemingly, then, the state of one's business is believed to greatly contribute to one's sense of harmony, we should see the necessity of looking at this question from the right standpoint.

Some individuals look at this subject more hopefully than do others. Many people are beginning to see that to take the same old business is to get the same old results. To get more is to get more. Many have stopped using the word "depression," feeling that the continual use of it has a bad effect upon the general outlook.

Business is primarily mental. In fact, all human experience is the outward expression of a state of consciousness. Christian Science reveals God, infinite good, as the only Mind. If the individual accepts this fact, he can learn how to reject all wrong thoughts. The acceptance of God, infinite good, as the only Mind opens his thought to receive the good and perfect ideas which come from God, divine Mind.

The only real business is the activity which comes from God. The one infinite, spiritual creation is always expressing the perfect activity which comes from the creator. Wonderfully uplifting is the realization of the truth set forth in this statement by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mind is the source of all movement; and there is no inertia to retard or check its perpetual and harmonious action" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 283). For several years the world has been accepting the general belief that something has interfered with harmonious activity; and both time and effort have been expended in trying to ascertain what is the trouble. One who accepts the fact that omnipotent Mind "is the source of all movement" can never believe in depression as a real thing. Having gained the true idea of activity, one can refuse to accept the belief that any mortal supposition has interfered, or ever can interfere, with harmonious activity.

A business man might be told by several of his "advisors" that the found-sales very poor, and he might learn that someone in a similar line of business had failed. He might let anxiety and fear enter his thought. This, of course, would not be helpful. On the other hand, if he refused to accept wrong thoughts about business, and held to the fact that real activity comes from divine Mind, and is always perfect, his affairs would improve, and to this extent he would help to improve conditions in general.

Since harmonious activity comes from God, divine Mind, and the real man, the true selfhood of all, is the image and likeness of divine Mind, the real man's business is always good, and spiritual man is ever rejoicing in harmonious activity. The great Way-shower, Christ Jesus, recognized that spiritual man ever reflects God, for he said, "The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise." One who accepts the true idea of activity is able to rise above the beliefs of fatigue, monotony, and worry; for the realization of the fact that man reflects divine Mind gives joyous strength, freedom, and expectancy of good.

Since business is in reality the activity which comes from God, divine Principle, fear, dishonesty, greed, selfishness, and lack of ability are no part of real business. This knowledge enables one to refuse to accept these falsities as having power to operate in his thought and affairs; and he sees instead honesty, efficiency, freedom, love, and joy. The realization of the truth brings one's human business into harmony with God's law, and destroys whatever is unlike good.—The Christian Science Monitor.

True Exchange

THE false belief that matter is substance underlies the error of hoarding. Those who accept this false concept are afraid to spend the money they have for fear they will not get more. During times when there has not been much money in active circulation, people have in some instances resorted to hoarding. The farmer who had potatoes, if he needed sugar, took his potatoes to a grocer, who gave him sugar in exchange; and thus one individual supplied another's need and in turn found his own need supplied.

Christian Science reveals that God, divine Love, is the only substance. Our part, then, in true exchange is the expression of love in helpful service. When we render helpful service to another, we are certain to receive good in exchange. If we meet someone who seems discouraged, we may try to cheer him, and in a measure succeed. Perhaps all he may say is, "Thanks for cheering me up." It may have seemed that we did not get anything in exchange for the service rendered, but the feeling that one helped another is a wonderful reward. Each act of loving service expresses the law of divine Love, which is operating always to bless. We should not do something for others simply with the expectation of getting a material reward or with the hope that the law of Love will operate in our behalf, for that would show that we were not animated by divine Love, and therefore were not conforming to the law of Love. We should understand that, when we are doing helpful things, we are obeying the law of Love which ever operates to bless.

The Master said: "Give, and it shall be given unto you: good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again." Keeping this admonition before us, we shall be careful how we think and act. Thinking loving thoughts and doing loving acts bring them back to us "pressed down, and running over."

The highest reward one can receive is described by Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, when she states that "the spiritual recompense of the persecuted is assured in the elevation of existence above mortal discord and in the gift of divine Love" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 98). This reward comes in the form of divine Love and exchange for the constant desire and effort to be of true service to others. If we earnestly entertain this desire, we have taken the first step toward gaining the reward. True desire is prayer, and true prayer never returns void. The earnest and steadfast desire that we may be of service to others steadily increases our opportunities in this respect. Many have been helped in their effort by starting the law with the prayer contained in one of Mrs. Eddy's poems (Poems, p. 13):

"My prayer, some daily good to do
To Thee, for Thee;
An offering pure of Love, wherein God leadeth me."

Christian Science points out that the real governor is divine Love, for divine Love is the only Mind, the divine Principle of true being. If we accept this fact and try to realize the ever-presence and omnipresence of divine Love, the one real Mind or Principle, we shall think lovingly of all and shall be inspired to do and say helpful things. This Science teaches that the real man is the reflection of divine Love. Accepting this real man as our true selfhood and holding to this truth, we shall express tenderness, gentleness, forgiveness, tolerance, usefulness; and great will be the reward which obedience to the law of Love will confer upon us.

When we accept the fact that divine Love is substance, we have no thought of hoarding, for we see that unless we manifest this substance, we cannot have real substance. This is the source upon which we can and must constantly draw for the benefit of all with whom we come into contact. The reflecting of divine Love is the true medium of exchange, and it must be kept constantly active. The more we express of the divine nature, the more we have of real substance, in the measure that we realize and reflect divine Love we have the sense of joy and completeness which this realization brings.—The Christian Science Monitor.

TEETH FOR A LIFETIME ARE BUILT IN YOUTH

More dental defects occur among children than all other physical defects. That fact alone explains why progressive communities hold on dental examinations for school children. Improper care of the teeth during childhood is also considered responsible for the appalling fact that the average person is only ten years in health. This means that our chewing mechanism which requires twenty years to build remains intact for only half that time.

Dr. Clarence O. Simpson says, "The guilt for this condition can be charged primarily to parents in deficient care and training of children, because the destruction of the teeth starts before the age of discretion," which means in every day language that parents do not insist that their children eat enough of the tooth-building foods, such as milk, fruits, vegetables and chewy foods. It also means that parents do not train their children to brush their teeth thoroughly and frequently.

Value of Parents' Example. It is not enough for parents to tell their children to brush their teeth and eat the right foods. They must also see that their children act on the directions given them. One very practical way for the parents to do this is to set them a good example by giving their own teeth good care, including frequent dental examinations. The parents must work with the schools and other health agencies in seeing that the children establish and practice the proper health habits.

Of course the school dental examination itself does nothing to improve the condition of the child's teeth. The value of the examination lies in calling the condition to the attention of the parents so that they will have the child's teeth cared for. Also, the re-examination is a means of showing whether the dental conditions are improving or getting worse. Possibly the most important function of these school-sponsored examinations is the object lesson which they present to the parents. They emphasize the value of having children's teeth examined regularly.

This is one of a series of articles on "How to Have Attractive Teeth" released in cooperation with and approved by the public service committee of the Chicago Dental Society.

Counting a Million

The time it would take to count a million coins would depend upon the person. In the counting room at the Treasury department the silver is usually weighed rather than counted. An estimate has been made, however, that counting at the rate of 1 a second and 3 hours a day, it would take a person about 83 days to count one million coins.

PROBATE JUDGE

Republican Primaries
April 10th, 1934

To the Voters of Lake County:

The office of Judge of the Probate Court is an important office. You may never have a law suit or be cited into Court, but if, at your death you own any individual property your family will have dealings with the Probate Court. You will want them to have the best service available, rendered in a kindly and sympathetic manner by a trained and experienced Judge.

It is a principle of American politics to retain on the bench Judges who have been efficient, honest and courteous. Federal Judges are appointed for life. Circuit Judges are not subjected to a primary election and are elected for six years at special elections. You also seek to retain in your service, teachers, business executives, assistants and employees who have been faithful and efficient.

We feel that if the voters of Lake County will investigate the record of Judge Decker they will re-nominate and re-elect him to the office of Probate Judge.
